

Privacy Notice

MFC Asset Management Public Company Limited (the “Company”) is committed to providing the best service to our valued customers. It is extremely important to earn your trust and confidence as a customer. The Company is aware of the importance of protecting customers personal information. Therefore, the Company has system in place to ensure data security and strict operation procedures. In addition, there are measures to protect data security to prevent access to, disclosure, use or alter the information without permission. The Company has prepared this policy to clarify the details of collection, usage or disclosure of personal data, the period of data collection, and the destruction of data and also rights of data owner. The customer can learn more details about the privacy policy by scanning the QR CODE as shown in the image below and see in the management company’s website at www.mfcfund.com

Krung Thai Asset Management Public Company Limited (“company” or “KTAM”) is concerned with the protection of the unitholder’s personal data which has been entrusted to the company. This also includes compliance with the Personal Data Protection Act of 2019 (B.E. 2562) which empowers individuals to demand that their personal data is properly protected when it is collected, used, disclosed and processed. The objective of this Privacy Notice is to explain the collection, usage, and disclosure (“processed” or “handled”) of your personal data that is used to provide company services whether it involves a private fund, provident fund, mutual fund, or trust (“funds”), or related activities. This applies whether or not one has registered to open a fund account or not. We urge that you read this notice to acknowledge and understand the purpose of why your personal data is collected, used, and processed.

